The participant authorizes the organizing company to exploit, by all means and in all media throughout the world and their legal duration of protection, all information received from the participant on the website including ideas, inventions, projects, technology or know-how they might contain.

The participant authorizes the organizing company to communicate him (her), in emails, informations about the current events of Riders Match and évents of the glide world.

The finalists of the previous session make a commitment to stake their place for the current session.

Article 4 - Definition of categories

4.1 – Categories : Surf, Skate, Bike, Windsurf, Kitesurf, Wakeboard, Crew, Crash

Once each participant has complied with the conditions mentioned in Article 3 above, the participant's video will be submitted for voting by Internet users.

The 5 videos garnering the most votes by November 15 will then be submitted to a jury that will select the best videos from each category.

Each category must have a minimum of 20 videos eligible under the conditions set out in Article 3, otherwise the competition will be cancelled for that category.

The categories are defined as follows:

- Surf / Professionnal

- Surf / Amateur
- Skate / Professionnal
- Skate / Amateur
- Bike / Professionnal
- Bike / Amateur
- Windsurf / Professionnal

- Windsurf / Amateur
- Kitesurf / Professionnal

- Kitesurf / Amateur

- Wakeboard / Professionnal

- Wakeboard / Amateur

- Crew / Professionnal
- Crew / Amateur
- Crash

4.1.1 - Subcategory men and women

For the categories Surf, Skate, Bike, Windsurf, Kitesurf and Wakeboard, each category with a minimum of 3 videos for women and 3 videos for men will be split into 2 sub-categories (eg Surf professional category, Surf Professional Women and Surf Professional Men)

Article 5 - Voting and announcement of results for Ski and Snowboard categories

5.1 - Internet Voting, July 19 2010 to November 15 2010 included

The videos posted by each participant will be subject to the votes of the Internet users directly on the website www.riders-match.com

5.2 – Selection of winners by a jury

The 5 videos bringing together the largest number of votes by November 15 2010 at midnight UTC+1 (French local time), will be submitted to a jury by the organizing company.

The jury will select the best video in each category according to 2 criteria:
Athletic performance and video direction

The videos will be selected by the Jury by an absolute majority of its members. The decision of the jury is sovereign and without appeal.

5.3 - Proclamation of results

The results will be announced no later than December 20 2010 online at www.riders-match.com and winners will be contacted by the organizing company to organize the distribution of prizes won in the contest.

Article 6 – Prize allocations / endowment

The Prize allocations are as follows:

- A check of €1000 for each "Professional" winner of the Surf, Skate, Bike, Windsurf, Kitesurf, Wakeboard (and subcategories for Men / Women if applicable) ; a check of €3000 for the "Professional" winner of the Crew category ; a check of €1000 for the winner of the Crash category.
- A prize allocation (like sponsorship contract) with a surf style brand for each "Amateur" winner with a value of €3000 (equipment endowment or clothing by categories) for Surf, Skate, Bike, Windsurf, Kitesurf, Wakeboard categories (as well as the subcategories Men / Women if applicable), a prize allocation with a value of € 5000 for Crew category.

Article 7 - Communication

Winners agree that the organizing company exploits, in all forms directed to all public, their video and their written and/or oral statements for commercial, advertising or public/press relations purposes, editorial or advertorial reports of all kinds and for any activity of the organizing company using all means of reproduction, duplication, representation, transmission, reception, coding or any other means whatsoever.

All without any consideration or compensation of any kind.

Article 8: Liability

The organizer reserves the right to cancel the contest in case no videos uploaded to the site www.riders-match.com would meet the requirements of Article 3 of this Regulation.

More generally, in cases of fraud detected during the course of the game, or in cases of natural forces, exceptional events or events beyond its control, the organizer may modify, shorten, extend, postpone, cancel or suspend Competition, although this does not give the right of participants to ask for consideration.

In the case of fraud on voting, the Organizing Company will be forced to change the method of appointment of winners: Videos will not be selected by the public but by the jury alone which will meet to designate the winners of the Riders Match.

In any case, prize allocations can not be exchanged against cash or goods or services of the same value at the request of the winners. They can not be transferred to a third party (except in the case of incapable adults). No more than the strict quantity of prizes described above will be won. In case of the cancellation of a winner, the participant in the same category whose video will come in 2nd place will be designated as an alternate and will then be offered the "abandoned" endowment.

The organizer reserves the right, if it is forced, in cases of major natural forces or for reasons beyond its control, to change the nature of endowments in play and replace by other of equivalent values. This substitution won't lead to any reimbursement of winners.

The organizer is free at any time to refuse or withdraw videos (including those allegedly illicit or illegal), immediately and without notice of the participant. The organizer does not need to justify its decision and the participant can not claim for compensation or have any legal recourse. For example, the organizer can refuse or withdraw the insertion of videos with individual, presenting an illegal character, or videos very similar to others already uploaded on the website, or with lack of technical quality.

The organizer may also at any time change, suspend, discontinue or cancel the contest without responsibility. However, any changes will be announced and will be tabled at Maître Nathalie Toulbot, Huissier de Justice, situé au 1 av Olivier Guichard 44500 BAULE ESCOUBLAC.

The organizer will not be held responsible for misdirected mail or wins, or if wins are lost during expedition, non-received or deteriorated.

The organizing company incurs no liability for claims or disputes including compliance or quality of wins.

In general, the organizing company does not incur any liability if, in case of major natural forces or events beyond its control (including incidents related to technical malfunction or fraudulent access to the system, malfunction, interruption or a slowdown in postal services, transportation or telecommunications network ...), it may cancel this contest, extend or modify the conditions as seen fit.

Article 9 - Information Technology and Freedoms

The organizer is the only recipient of personal information requested to participate in the contest. The details of participants and winners will be handled in accordance with the French Law loi Informatique et Libertés No. 78-17 du 6 Janvier 1978.

In conformity with the Charter of confidentiality above, and pursuant to Article 38 of Law No. 2004-80 1 of 6 August 2004 on computers, files and freedoms, each participant has a right of access, opposition, rectification, cancellation of information about him/her and can exercise it on request by sending an e-mail to: contact@riders-match.com

In accordance with the Article of the Law No. 78-17 of January 6, 1978 on computers, files and freedom, participants have a right to access and correct their personal data to CBS Interactive, an SAS company.

Article 10 - Respect of the rules

Mere participation in the competition implies acceptance full and unreserved hereto.

Any false or incomplete declaration of identity or details will result in the immediate elimination of its author.

The organizer reserves the right to sue anyone who attempts fraud.

All difficulties relating to the interpretation of the rules will be decided by the organizing company and its decisions are final.

Any request: written, telephone or oral, concerning the interpretation or application of rules or modalities and mechanisms of competition and / or the list of winners won't be responded.

Article 11: Consultation and deposit of Regulation

This regulation is deposited with Maître Nathalie Toulbot, Huissier de Justice, located au 1 av Olivier Guichard 44500 BAULE ESCOUBLAC.

The regulation, in addition to being available on the website www.riders-match.com can be posted/sent at no charge to anyone who requests it. This request should be sent to : «Riders Match » à WAX UP - 66 Avenue de Lattre de Tassigny – 44500 La Baule.
